

Give experiences as a gift now with TWINT

Whether it's for a birthday party or an anniversary, you can now find the right gift for every event in the TWINT app. Thanks to a large selection of credit voucher codes as well as experience and adventure vouchers, it's really easy and convenient to make someone happy directly from the TWINT app.

Finding the right gift for friends and family members is sometimes not so easy. These gifts should be personal and ideally be treasured for a long time. With TWINT, the search for the right gift becomes child's play. In addition to the well-known selection of digital vouchers, a wide range of experience and adventure vouchers have recently been added to the TWINT app. This is all made possible by the partnership with e-surprise, the platform operated by the Swiss market leader in the voucher business – e-guma. The wide range of experiences complements the existing functions in TWINT, such as payment in stores or online shops, transferring money to friends and family members, weekly Super Deals and the donation function.

The new "Gift experience" feature can be accessed by tapping the TWINT+ button in the TWINT app. Here, users can look forward to a varied range of excursions, adventures and experiences. From romantic candlelight dinners and weekends in an alpine hut to helicopter rides, we have everything to make your heart beat that little bit faster.

Once you have found the right gift and purchased it, you can download the voucher immediately, give it a decorative design should you wish, and send it to the recipient with a personal message. Purchased experience vouchers can be easily converted into a credit voucher. Thus, the person receiving the voucher can also enjoy the gift if the weather doesn't play ball or they have a scheduling conflict.

TWINT has set itself the target of simplifying the lives of more than 4 million active users every single day. The new "Gift experience" feature in the TWINT app is not only simple, but also offers a good dose of action, adventure and imagination – whether it's for paragliding, a wellness weekend or even a short break in the mountains. Original gift ideas for unforgettable experiences are now only a few clicks away in the TWINT app.
