ikr: Talks between Liechtenstein and China on a Double Taxation Agreement

Vaduz (ots) -

From 30 October until 1 November 2017 talks were held in Beijing on a bilateral Double Taxation Agreement (DTA) between Liechtenstein and China. The delegations explained their respective domestic tax provisions and exchanged positions on the DTA article by article. It was agreed that both sides would update each other about relevant developments in the field of taxation prior to the next meeting. The results of the discussions were summarized in agreed minutes.
