LifeWatch announces total 2011 contracts year to date for ACT and Home Sleep testing services

Neuhausen am Rheinfall / Switzerland* – LifeWatch AG (SIX Swiss Exchange: LIFE), the leading wireless remote cardiac and medical patient monitoring service provider in the U.S., announced today that it has contracted with an additional 103 providers for its ACT and Home Sleep testing services during the course of 2011. Collectively, these agreements represent over 21 million covered lives.

LifeWatch devotes significant resources in its managed care efforts. Dedicated managed care specialists work with payors across the nation to demonstrate the cost benefit and improved clinical outcomes our monitoring technologies and services offer to their members. In 2011, LifeWatch signed 103 agreements, of which 47 were for its NiteWatch Home Sleep Test services, and 56 for its Ambulatory Cardiac Telemetry (ACT) services. Since 2010, LifeWatch has negotiated 359 contracts for these two services, which do not include Cardiac Event Monitoring and Holter Monitoring contracts.

“We are extremely gratified that our advanced monitoring services are accepted more and more by a diverse group of payors. Our managed care strategy is focused on demonstrating the clinical benefits of an earlier diagnosis that can lead to improved patient outcomes and cost containment,” stated Dr. Yacov Geva, Chairman and CEO of LifeWatch AG which is the parent company of LifeWatch Services, Inc.
