

CURRICULUM VITAE

Roberto Botta

Swiss citizen
Born on 17 October 1961
Married with 2 children

Education

1990 Credit Suisse, New York, International Banking School

1983 University of Geneva
Master's degree in economics and politics

Professional experience

Roberto Botta began his career in 1984, when he joined a graduate training scheme at Credit Suisse. He started work as a client relationship manager for the bank's Private Banking and Affluent Clients businesses the same year. Between 1986 and 1989, he was in charge of the Geneva-based Private Banking Desk Kuwait and United Arab Emirates. He was subsequently Head of Private Banking Northern Europe (UK and Scandinavia) in Zurich and Geneva between 1990 and 1995. In 1996, he moved to Banque Darier Hentsch in Geneva as a Senior Private Banker. He continued his career the following year at the Geneva branch of Bank Leu, where he was Head of Private Banking Italy, Mediterranean and Middle East. He then moved in 2002 to BNP Paris Group, Switzerland, where he held a number of leadership positions, including manager of the Lugano branch from September 2002 to the end of 2004. He currently works in Geneva as Private Banking Area Manager Central and Southern Europe, reporting directly to Global Head Private Banking.

CURRICULUM VITAE

Franco Polloni

Swiss citizen
Born on 3 May 1965
Married with 2 children

Education

- 1998 Swiss Federal Tax Consultant Diploma
- 1991/92 Law degree, University of Neuchâtel
- 1990 University of Zurich
Master's degree in economics (lic. oec. publ.)

Professional experience

Franco Polloni began his career in 1993 with the audit and tax consulting company ATAG Ernst & Young in Zurich, where he worked as a tax consultant until 1996. In that year, he moved to the Federal Department of Foreign Affairs (DFA). He then moved in 1997 to STG-Coopers & Lybrand (later PricewaterhouseCoopers) in Lugano, where he worked as a tax consultant before being promoted in 1998 to Manager of the Tax & Legal Department, the position he held until joining Banca del Gottardo on 1 February 2001. He has performed a number of key roles at Banca del Gottardo in client relationship management and financial planning. He has been in charge of the Financial & Fiscal Planning Department since 1 October 2002.